Guruji's Satsang Maryada

Respectful code of conduct for participating in Guruji's Satsang

By participating in Guruji's Satsang, we commit to a welcoming, respectful, and safe space where every person's dignity matters. We practice Satsang Maryada with humility, care, and a willingness to learn and evolve in our spiritual journey and connect with the Light Divine, our Guruji Maharaj.

Expected Conduct during Guruji's Satsang

- Arrive Early — Arrive before the start time to welcome Guruji Maharaj
- Keep phones silent — Refrain from using your cell phones or devices inside the Mandir
- Darshan Etiquettes — Don't jump the line as Guruji decides the moment for your blessing
- Connect with Guruji Maharaj — Maintain pin-drop silence and avoid talking or socializing
- Meditate/Dhyan — Do not sing Shabads or recite mantra Jaap loudly
- Follow Sewadar Instructions — For parking, seating, langar distribution, darshan, etc.
- Take care of Children — Ensure children remain seated with their parents & maintain silence
- Maintain Stillness — Please be seated and do not roam or disturb fellow Sangat members
- Divine Prashad — Finish Langar prashad, Chai prasad, and Jal prashad completely in Mandir
- Dress suitably — Dress respectfully, consistent with the dignity of the Satsang
- Speak with kindness — Treat Sewadars, Management and Sangat with courtesy & respect
- Keep the Mandir clean — Dispose of waste, return shared items, and maintain cleanliness
- Care for shared items — Treat furnishings, materials, fixtures & other property with respect
- Ask when unsure — Check with Management Team or a Sewadar, if unsure

Satsang sharing – Integral part of Guruji's Satsang

If you would like to share your Satsang, please give your name ahead of time to the Management Team and only walk up to the dais/microphone when your name is called. Please refrain from any preaching or sermons, Guruji never gave any sermons. Only share your personal experience with Guruji Maharaj and Guruji's blessings. It is not a forum for any other purpose, including addressing personal disputes or grievances between individuals, Organizational, financial, or management complaints, Political, commercial, or promotional speech and any statement intended to provoke, accuse, or instigate rather than share spiritual reflection. Refrain from shouting, verbal abuse, threats, or derogatory remarks directed at any individual.

Media Notice

No Photography, live streaming or video recording — During Satsang please refrain from any form of photography, filming, live-streaming, or audio recording as it distracts the Sangat from meditation and is not permitted. To facilitate Sangat's request, pictures and videos are taken by designated Sewadars and posted on social media (Facebook, Instagram, etc.) and Satsang is streamed live on our Youtube channel. By attending, you consent to being photographed or filmed for use on our website, official email updates, and social media platforms. Parents attending with minors grant consent on their behalf. If you wish to opt out of media coverage, please notify Management team upon arrival or contact us at gurujisangatba@gmail.com
